

(Exo 26:2 NIV) All the curtains are to be the same size--twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

26:1 "Make the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

2 All the curtains are to be the same size--twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five.

The four Cherubim carried out (implemented) the Lord's wrath in the book of Revelation. The cherubim being worked into the curtains is very significant and quite well could identify the purpose of the curtains. A study of the cherubim from the book of Ezekiel portrays them as forming a protective square inside of a protective square of the "wheels". The Lord rode on these two sets of four as though being carried by a war chariot. May I submit that these two "carriers" might be the Hebrew bride (Messianic Jew) and the Gentile Bride (The Church). This is a complete study in its' own right and certainly must be scripturally proven until accepted. There are four sevens in each number of 28. Seven denotes completion. We find the four Cherubim functioning and perhaps complete in Revelation. The two twenty eights are composed of portions of the four. There are two Seraphim in the temple, one on each side of the "Mercy Seat" = Christ. These Seraphim were very large and awesome to behold. They were found in the Holy of Holies. The two seem to have been a part of the four but were made to be a lot closer than most. Their wingtips touched at one point only, above the Mercy Seat which is thought to represent Christ. Ordinarily the Law and Grace would be diametrically opposed to each other and only in Christ can they co-exist. Perhaps these two great Seraphim are those believers that Christ was speaking of when he responded to the lady that asked him if her two sons could sit one on each side, that the father had already predetermined who would sit there. One on each side just like the two twenty eights. Very close, very loyal, utterly obedient unto death and incredibly protective of their groom. Could these be those spoken of in Jeremiah 31:22 How long will you wander, O unfaithful daughter? The LORD will create a new thing on earth-- a woman will surround a man." But the purpose of this woman?

(Exo 36:9 NIV) All the curtains were the same size--twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

26:1 "Make the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

2 All the curtains are to be the same size--twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five.

4 Make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and do the same with the end curtain in the other set.

The "two" sets of fives represent a work of Grace done by the trinity in the formation of these two twenty eights. The purpose of the two is very deep, wonderful, and mysterious. These three colors may represent the work of the Holy Spirit, the Father, and of course the Son. The blue material along the edge of the end curtains may well represent the work of the Holy Spirit in a believers life that allows him to accept what Christ did for him on the cross so that he may well enter into the Holy of Holies.

(2 Ki 10:1 -36 NIV) The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

An agent of vengeance during the fall of Ahabs house. Read: 2 Ki 10: 1-36. His acts of vengeance (wrath) are connected with 70 and two. Completion of vengeance on the house of Ahab and the martyring of two groups = the two piles of heads at the city gates. The type that is expressed is at the end of this age during the Day of the Lord. In Daniel's seven day week this would be the seventh day = His day of wrath. There will be two groups of very special people who will be willing to present the gospel even during the day of vengeance. Not any of those being punished on the seventh day are expected to repent however the Lord's vengeance is not purchased cheaply. Naturally they are killed by the ones they are presenting the gospel to.

These are the two representing Moses (the Law) the Messianic Bride and the Spirit of Elijah (Grace) = the Church.

(2 Chr 11:21 NIV) Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all, he had eighteen wives (three sixes) and sixty concubines, twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

We see a lot of sixes in the above sentence. Six is the number of man at his worst or under the control of Satan totally selfish and apostate. The number 28 is connected with those numbers.

Rehoboam lead his portion of Israel (Judah and Benjamin = the two again?) away from the Lord until the Lord's wrath or vengeance was directed toward him and the people. He and others "repented" and the Lord did not take his full wrath but only subjugated Rehoboam to an unworldly ruler. The twenty eight sons were put in charge under him. 14 and 14. They were his instruments of control. They were closest to him and he could trust his sons more than any of the others.

Consider this:

1. Christ died on the cross to purchase redemption for us.
2. During that act of Love and Obedience to the father he also condemned Satan and apostate Israel.
- 3.. Shortly after his death and the death of many of those he taught Rome burned and ransacked Israel. This perhaps was a losing of the wrath of the Lord by an unclean agent who would later be destroyed.

4. At the end of this age in the book of Revelation we find the two witnesses. Some have thought of them as being Moses and Elijah. Careful scrutiny as to their actions and the study of the Two in scripture gives us a different view. Both are found pointing out sin and calling down plagues during the Lord's day. I believe they represent the "last chance" for a world destined for destruction. The world still is portrayed as saying no by destroying both of them. They the "Two" will give their lives as their groom did 2000 years previously. What follows will be the same. By touching the ones that offer salvation the world will reap the whirlwind. Wrath falls and consumes them with ever lasting destruction.

Twenty eight is portrayed as being the two individuals (corporate?) Seraphim, an elect of the elect, that have been given much and are expected to give much. It will be their obedience to the father that will in the end cause their martyring and consequently the final destruction of the enemy.

We win by losing, we win by loving, we win by being obedient and faithful unto death.

To implement wrath with an act of Love. How sublime. Turning the cheek really does work. Love is stronger than death.

Twenty eight is a doubling of 14.

(Gen 31:41 NIV) It was like this for the twenty years I was in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times.

Here we see a period of time to complete payment for something desirable. Consider that Jacob is a type of Christ and that Leah and Rachael are the Gentile Church Bride and the Hebrew Church Bride.

During the past age (a seven) Israel was given so much by the Lord and she turned from him to adultery six times. Now at the end of this age 2000 years later, another seven, both brides have been paid for. However our Lord was given Leah (the church) first and at the end of this age he will be given Rachael the true Hebrew bride. Apostate Israel, the Whore of Babylon will reap the whirlwind. No the whore who sits on seven hills is not the Roman Catholic church but apostate Israel who has set on seven false religions in the past as well as one recently that existed for just a short time and she will sit again on the eighth beast Kingdom that is forming now. Note the seven hills (false religions) she has sat on already:

1. Egypt
 2. Assyria
 3. Babylon
 4. Medio-Persia
 5. Greece
 6. Rome
- Recently:
7. Germany-Hitler
 8. A ten nation confederacy over which the anti-christ will rule.

In every case with the above she made a peace treaty with her enemy and actually used her enemy for her own purposes. Her enemy in every situation was always used to take vengeance upon this adulterous individual. Her last chance is coming with the eighth beast kingdom, or religion, and in Revelation we see her doing the same thing. She signs the peace treaty with the beast instead of seeking her Lord.

Why do you think John was so incredulous when he was shown the whore? Rev 17:6-7 6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.
7 Then the angel said to me: "Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

(Gen 46:22 NIV) These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob--fourteen in all.
